The special train from Fordsville to Cloverport for the Masonic barbecue Thursday will be conducted by Mr.
J. J. Telford, of Fordsville, who will see that the best of order is preserved and will provide every comfort and convenience possible for the passengers.

The News, on behalf of the Masons and the good people of this city, cordially invites all its friends and readers to come to Cloverport to-morrow and take part in the big barbeque. The hospitality of the city is open to all and a hearty welcome awaits you.
Neither pains nor money has been spared to make you enjoy this great day and we sincerely wish you to be one of us. We want you to come with the expectation of enjoying yourself and when you return to your homes we want you to feel that you would be glad to come again next year. Our little city was destroyed by fire a little over two years ago but, by your good help, it has been rebuilt. We want to make your acquaintance to-morrow, to show you how we have grown in those two years and to thank you, by a hearty welcome and the hand of good fellowship, for your aid in contributing to this growth.

PREACHED IN TWO CHURCHES.

Rev. W. B. Rutledge Conducts Meeting in New Goshen Church-- Also Local Church.

Rev. W. B. Rutledge, of Asheville, N. C., former pastor of the Baptist church of this city, preached in the new Goshen Baptist church at Glen-deane Sunday morning. The services were interesting and successful both spiritually and materially. Rev.
Rutledge delivered a good talk and a considerable sum of money was raised for the benefit of the church, in which the new pews have just been placed

Sunday evening Rev. Rutledge delivered a touching sermon to a large congregation of Baptists, Methodists and Presbyterians in the Baptist church of this city. At the close he delivered a message of love from his beloved wife, who passed away August 6 at Asheville, to her old friends in Cloverport.

Rev. Rutledge came here from Taylorsville, Ky., where Mrs. Rutledge was buried. He will be in the city several days and would be glad to see all the friends he made while he had this pastorate several years ago.

Successful Protracted Meeting.

For the past two weeks Rev. W.
R. Oldham, assisted by Rev R. T.
Brainer, has been holding a protracted meeting at Mt. Pisgah Baptist church, several miles back of this city. Much interest is being manifested in the meeting and the earnest efforts of Rev. Oldham and Rev. Brainer resulted, the first week, in eight additions to the church.

Lakeland Dairy Farm FOR SALE!

Having determined to remove to city and devote myself exclusively to professional work, I now offer at private contract this splendidly equipped farm, and the entire outfit now used to operate.

327 acres lying on, and divided by Hardinsburg and Salt River road, and within thirty minutes drive of Irvington railway station. 275 acres in crops and pasture and 50 acres in timber. Used ten years for dairying, and therefore in good state of cultivation, and now improved, equipped and stocked as follows:

Modern Improvements: Modern seven room cottage (newly painted) and with cellar underneath, large yard and garden with cistern and such buildings as belong in a yard; two tenement houses and one cabin; barns for keeping 50 to 60 head of cattle and horses; magnificent granary with seven bins, will store 3,000 bushels of grain, and lower floors stores machinery, wagons, etc.; double silo with 150 ton capacity; four room hog barn; family orchard and small fruits; eight large lakes or ponds from four to six feet deep, each covering from one to one and one-half acres and situated exactly at right place settles the water question and supplies the fish; underground ice houses, etc.

For machinery I will mention 10 h. p. engine and boiler complete, two tread powers, one and two horse, large feed and ensilage cutter and thirty feet of carrier, wheat binder, corn binder, mowers, rakes, a kind of plows, cultivators, harrows, weeder, drills, circular saw rig, cream separator, farm wagons, surrey, buggy, in fact everything from a ten horse engine to a batchet.

Magnificent dairy herd of 30 cows and 20 heifers of the Tormentor and St. Lambert families, now headed by a son of the noted "King of St. Lambert." Founding of this herd has been the work of ten years, and the result is an average of more than 300 lbs. of butter per year for each cow in the herd, and 1 lb. of butter for every two gallons of milk—and best butter market in the United States.

8 head of mules and horses, 35 tons of timothy, clover and oat hay, 45 acres growing crop of corn, etc. All offered privately for next month, at end of that time 1
